

UK business schools employ 18,300 academic staff;
that's 8% of all university academics.

The UK's most popular subject at university!

1 in 6 of all students are studying Business & Management. That's 441,700 students, of which only 6% are studying for an MBA.

The UK's Business School Sector

International students

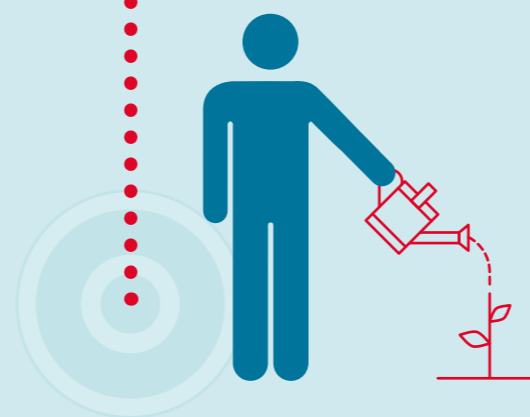

taught by our business schools spend at least £4bn in our economy annually.

1 in 3

international students

in UK universities are on a business or management course.

Creating the next generation of start-ups

Business students are responsible for 23% of all graduate start-ups.