

BRITISH JOURNAL OF MANAGEMENT NEW ASSOCIATE EDITOR SOUGHT

The British Journal of Management is ranked 60/152 in business journals and 88/226 in management journals, with an impact factor of 3.023 and is graded as 4 in the Chartered ABS Academic Journal Guide. The journal continues to perform well and is attracting increasing submissions as one of the leading management journals. We are recruiting 4 additional Associate Editors and are particularly interested in recruiting female editors and individuals from other under-represented groups in order to increase diversity in our editorial team.

We are looking for senior academics who ideally have experience as an Associate Editor on another journal, or experience as Guest Editors for the special issues in other leading journals, or who have extensive relevant reviewing experience.

The new Associate Editors will join our growing team of 10 Associate Editors with a 3-year appointment.

Please contact the Managing Editor, Emma Missen, at bjm@bam.ac.uk if you would like to apply. We especially encourage applications from women academics. Please include your CV and a covering letter explaining why you would like to be considered. The deadline for applications is 9am on Monday 4th January 2021.
